The New Zealand National Bibliography (NZNB) contains catalogue records for the New Zealand imprint. It is produced monthly (12 issues per year). The National Library of New Zealand has responsibility for producing the Bibliography. Most of the material listed is received by the National Library of New Zealand under the Legal Deposit provisions of the National Library (Te Puna Mātauranga o Aotearoa) Act 2003. It contains New Zealand and Tokelau resources, both physical and digital, including books, serials, newspapers, maps, music, websites and podcasts. Items are included after they have been received at the National Library. The records are created in accordance with international cataloguing standards.

This document contains all the items that have been catalogued during the month of April 2020. The items are grouped by format and then separated into digital and physical. Within each format grouping the items are arranged alphabetically by title.

Summary: "A man's wife and step daughter die in a hit and run, at first it was a suspected terrorist attack, but events in the following months reveal to him that all was not as it had once seemed. As he sets out to find those who had destroyed his little family, he uncovers a web of intrigue involving, gun running, drugs, and almost a tonne of Nazi gold hidden in France since the end of the Second World War and lurking behind it all in the shadows, the Russian Mafia and a high ranking French Bureaucrat pulling the strings. His search takes him from England to France and Switzerland, where in a safety deposit box of an exclusive and discreet bank, he discovers some very unwelcome secrets that tell him that his wife had been lying to him and leading a double life for nearly their entire marriage. He must hunt down his family's killers and take his terrible revenge, before they know of his existence and the hunter becomes the hunted. And then there is Sake"--Publisher's website.

Summary: "A lack of knowledge about the world can be a very dangerous thing. In the age of Trump, fake news and clickbait headlines, it is easy to despair about the future of journalism. The New Zealand and global media are in upheaval: the old economic models for print journalism are failing, public funding has been neglected for decades, and many major news organisations are shedding journalists. New Zealander Mel Bunce researches and teaches journalism at the acclaimed Department of Journalism at City, University of London."--Publisher information.

When seventeen-year-old Kyle Kindall is imprisoned despite pleading not guilty, the judge – suspecting Kyle may have been poorly represented at the trial – assigns a trusted friend to find more evidence that may support Kyle's story. But Yuuki Takahashi is already dealing with a lot of stress in his life when Timothy, the judge, approaches him. After an incident rendered him with PTSD a year ago, he’s at war with himself as to whether or not he should take on Kindall’s case. However it’s not just his health at stake here; it’s Kyle freedom as well. Why would anyone still insist they aren’t guilty even when everyone and everything else suggests otherwise? Yuuki can’t help but feel that something isn’t right and he’s determined to find out why"--Back cover.

Summary  "After a tragic accident, Megan Stevenson is determined to give Nora, her five-year-old niece, a loving and stable home. With her fantasy cake business thriving and her niece's nightmares finally over, Megan's life is more stable than it has ever been - until a stranger knocks on her door and warns her that her life is in danger. FBI Special Agent William Parker knows what it's like to lose the people you love. He has convinced himself that his job is all he needs to be happy. But while he's protecting Megan and Nora from a brutal terrorist group, his emotionless and solitary life is torn to shreds. With Christmas fast approaching, can Megan and Nora convince him that it's safe to love again... even if loving them is harder than letting them go?" -- About this book.

Summary  "Stan Lewis is the director of Bozeman Deaconess Hospital. With less than three months until the opening of a new neonatal unit, he needs to organize the biggest fundraising event Montana has ever seen. An event staging company could be the answer to all his problems, or create more than he ever imagined. Mia Costas is a successful artist, not an event planner.
But, when two of her best friends ask her to help stage a charity gala, she reluctantly agrees.
When she realizes how important the event is, she knows she’s not the best person for the job
- and so will Stan if he discovers who she is. With the hopes of more than one child resting on their shoulders, Stan and Mia work together to create a night no one will forget. And maybe, if they let themselves believe in the power of love, they can create a little magic of their own"

Title: Conserving the plants of eastern South Island limestone = Ngā tipu ō te pākeho / Peter Heenan & Geoffrey Rogers.

Creator: Heenan, Peter B. (Peter Brian), 1961-

Format: 1 online resource : colour illustrations

Summary: "Limestone ecosystems are assessed as nationally threatened. The situation is particularly serious for calcareous sites in lowland, eastern South Island. In this publication we aim to draw attention to the unique values of limestone formations in eastern South Island, but also the fragility and vulnerability of limestone ecosystems and their flora. We also describe other important uses of limestone, such as for Māori rock art, and note there is a lot of commonality with numerous sites having important rock art and high biodiversity values. This publication aims to fill a knowledge void about the specialist limestone plants of the eastern South Island by bringing together information into standardised plant profile factsheets, thereby improving access to information for their recognition, distribution, habitats and conservation status. Distribution maps and images of all taxa are provided to aid in their identification."--Pages 1-2.

Summary "Ever pretended to be a stripper to save someone from an awkward situation? Taylor Francis hadn’t. Until he had. Francis runs a successful event company and lounge bar. Greta Winters is an old-money socialite. Their paths would never usually cross: Francis avoids women in Greta's tax bracket like a New Yorker avoids Times Square. But in the face of unexpected public embarrassment, he won’t leave her to the wolves. The impulse rescue sparks an attraction Francis can’t get out of his head. But Greta is wary of being charmed by this too slick, too smooth, too gorgeous lothario. Which would be much easier if his voice didn’t make her think of sweaty limbs and twisted sheets. Mostly his limbs. And her sheets. And his—Damn. She’s in trouble" —Synopsis.

Summary  "This report summarises the themes emerging from the Ministry of Health’s project “Listening to the Impact of Surgical Mesh Use and Understanding the Ministry of Health’s Responsibilities to Inform Action”. The project has explored the harms and needs created by the use of surgical mesh in New Zealand. It is underpinned by restorative principles and has employed restorative practices. This report describes the co-design process and findings, illustrated by participants’ own words. The harms, needs and reparative actions identified by those impacted by surgical mesh harm, health practitioners and healthcare stakeholders are included"--Introduction.

Summary  "Ready for a wild adventure into online dating? It is estimated that by 2040 over 70% of new relationships will start online. Internet dating is all the rage, radically changing our ideas of romance, sex and relationships. No longer a domain for the desperate, society continues to embrace dating sites as a good way to meet people and user number skyrocket. It's easy to do and so many find true love. There's never been a better time. Or so it seems... Alexis is a bubbly, warm and cultured Gemini who loves wine and beach walks but she struggles to find time for relationship with her work and family commitments. James is a successful railway consultant that travels the world, adores his teenage son, and feels it's time to love again having mourned the loss of his wife to cancer for eight years. I Love You, Send Money provides you with premium seating to get intimate with James and Alexis in this modern day fairy tale. Each goes online searching for true love. Neither expects to find a perfect match. The emotional rollercoaster of their story, the first and only online dating experience for Alexis, is best enjoyed with a glass of wine by the cozy fireplace. Indulge in the compelling narrative of this reality read. Each chapter is paired with food and wine, mood music and art, leaving a lasting impression in your reading experience. This Internet dating romance with a twist brings new meaning to the saying: All's fair in love and war"—Introductory page.

Summary "Trey, Quinn, and Ayaz—the king, the joker, and the enigma. Three guys who’ve flipped my life upside down, set my heart on fire, and shown me that nothing is as it seems. Last quarter, they broke me. I thought that was the worst it could get at Miskatonic Prep. I was wrong. Twenty years ago, a tragedy changed this school forever. Arrogance turned this place of learning into a house of horrors. Greed awoke something from the deep. And that something waits, dead but dreaming, beneath the gymnasium. Waiting for its next target. Waiting for me. I want to trust the guys. I want their friendship. I want so much more. And right now, I need their help. But after what they did to me, how can I let them in? Secrets. Lies. Sacrifice. Welcome to my nightmare"—MOBI page 5.

Summary "Mack Reed has dreams of giving up working as a shearing contractor to buy a high country station. Perhaps it's only a pipe dream and how will he ever find that kind of money? When he moves to Glenorchy, a remote rural area in the Southern Alps, his luck changes—or is it divine intervention? He tries to form a relationship with his grandfather, Walter who is embittered by a longstanding feud between Mack's father, and himself. When he takes over Reed Station, a high country merino and cattle station from his grandfather, he thinks he has bitten off more than he can chew. He has a shepherd's heart full of generosity and love, not only for the animals in his care, but also for his family and community. When his sister, Meg moves to Glenorchy, her unruly behaviour which offends the local farmers, threatens to ruin the new life Mack has made as a newlywed, with Jessie, the Remote Vet. The life that is beyond his wildest dreams comes crashing down. How is he going to heal the feud between his father and grandfather and prevent his sister from destroying the respect and admiration he has earned from his farming?"--Publisher's information.

Summary  "Three years ago, Matthew Gray made a promise that’s about to turn his life upside down.
With nothing except a silver ring and an address to follow, he searches for Ashley Fisher, determined to bring her back to Montana—to the one place she never wanted to call home. Ashley sees her job as a reporter at The Daily Times as a stepping-stone to greater things. When she uncovers a story that wraps one of America’s richest families in a web of lies and deceit, she has to run for her life. Someone wants to stop her from exposing the truth and they’ll use whatever force is necessary" --About this book.

When seventeen-year-old Kyle Kindall is imprisoned despite pleading not guilty, the judge – suspecting Kyle may have been poorly represented at the trial – assigns a trusted friend to find more evidence that may support Kyle's story. But Yuuki Takahashi is already dealing with a lot of stress in his life when Timothy, the judge, approaches him. After an incident rendered him with PTSD a year ago, he's at war with himself as to whether or not he should take on Kindall's case. However it's not just his health at stake here; it's Kyle freedom as well. Why would anyone still insist they aren't guilty even when everyone and everything else suggests otherwise? Yuuki can't help but feel that something isn't right and he's determined to find out why.

Summary  "How is it, you must ask that supposedly sensible, rational people desire to become an MP? It's silly, but there you are, some people lust after such success, if only to stick it to those who, in their youth, predicted they'd never amount to anything. Told in the form of letters to his wide-eyed nephew Basil, John Terris shares his experiences as he sets out to explain to him that the much sought after office of Member of the New Zealand Parliament, which looks so attractive to the bright, personable and idealistic young man or woman, may turn out to be something else. How to convey the disappointments in store, the trials and tribulations, not to mention the betrayals and disillusionment, which awaits them after they achieve their dream. September showdown offers readers a vivid, yet tongue-in-cheek, meander through all that lies ahead of Basil in his quest for selection for the Labour Party and ultimately a seat in Parliament"--Back cover of print.

Summary  "As an agent for the Tempus Institute, Jason Adams's task is to observe the past, not change it. But when he's sent to twenty-first-century Wellington, New Zealand, during the last week of aspiring songwriter Sean Henderson's life, Jason finds he can't just watch from a distance. He and Sean quickly become friends and then lovers, and when the song that's haunted Jason for years connects them in a way he never anticipated, he'll risk changing history for the chance of sharing a future with Sean"--Publisher's website.

Summary "This document proposes an alternative methodology for calculating the inherent fire resistance of multi-bay, multi-storey steel framed car parking buildings with composite metal deck floor systems. The proposed alternative method described here determines the capacity of steel beams within a carpark under exposure to realistic fires. The basis of the proposed methodology is from extensive research undertaken in Europe and Australia. Similar methodologies have been applied and developed in Europe. A review and critique of the application of the Time Equivalence method for carparking buildings is provided in this document"--Page 9.

Summary: "Jason Smith is an ex-Detroit Police Detective. After surviving the worst five years of his life, he's determined to make a better life for himself and his two children. When he meets Claire Williams, the wall he built around his broken heart starts to crumble. She lights up his world and makes him want to believe in happy endings. When Claire becomes the target of a deranged serial killer, Jason does everything he can to keep her safe. But this time, coming face to face with his enemy could cost him more than his soul. He could lose everyone he loves." --About this book.

Title Conserving the plants of eastern South Island limestone = Ngā tipu ō te pākeho / Peter Heenan & Geoffrey Rogers.

Creator Heenan, Peter B. (Peter Brian), 1961-

Format vi, 224 pages : colour illustrations, colour maps ; 21 cm.

Summary "Limestone ecosystems are assessed as nationally threatened. The situation is particularly serious for calcareous sites in lowland, eastern South Island. In this publication we aim to draw attention to the unique values of limestone formations in eastern South Island, but also the fragility and vulnerability of limestone ecosystems and their flora. We also describe other important uses of limestone, such as for Māori rock art, and note there is a lot of commonality with numerous sites having important rock art and high biodiversity values. This publication aims to fill a knowledge void about the specialist limestone plants of the eastern South Island by bringing together information into standardised plant profile factsheets, thereby improving access to information for their recognition, distribution, habitats and conservation status. Distribution maps and images of all taxa are provided to aid in their identification."--Pages 1-2.

Title: NZ bear hunt.
Publishing Details: Christchurch, New Zealand : NZ Bear Hunt
Format: Web site.
Frequency: Irregular
Publication Numbering: Began in 2020?
Summary: "With our nation and the world finding ourselves in such uncertain times, I knew that connection, bringing joy and kindness would be a welcome distraction in a time of isolation and forced disconnect. What began as a little idea on a Sunday afternoon, has turned into a nationwide movement (heading global) with thousands taking part. The simple concept is to put a teddy bear or toy in a window facing the street, to pin your bear on the map and explore your neighbourhood for those houses taking part. This phenomenon, the NZ Bear Hunt, has taken off simply because of the genuine nature of Kiwis throughout the world who know the importance of reaching out to others in times of crisis"--home page.

Format Web site.

Frequency Irregular

Summary "Tuia 250 ki Tūranga is about our people and our place - what brought us together, what challenges us, and how we weave our differences into a future we will be proud to leave our grand-children. Tuia 250 ki Tūranga actively explores the stories on land and at sea. We will recognise and commemorate two extraordinary voyaging traditions and cultures - each with their legacies and technologies, opportunities and vulnerabilities. But most importantly, Tuia 250 ki Tūranga will make room for conversations, some of them awkward, all of them vital to forging a shared future" - home page.

Publication Numbering  Began in 2019?
Summary  "Whanganui o Hei | Mercury Bay is one of four landing sites in Aotearoa/New Zealand where Māori and European first met during Cook’s 1769 voyage, therefore a significant place for Tuia - Encounters 250 commemorations. When H.M Bark Endeavour sailed into Te Whanganui o Hei waters, tangata whenua Ngāti Hei welcomed the newcomers ashore at their Tūrangawawae, Wharekaho, and guaranteed their safe passage to their marae, Wharetāewa Pa. There, Ngāti Hei honoured Lieutenant James Cook, Tupaia (a Polynesian linguist, navigator and priest) and the scientists and crew on board the Endeavour with the Māori ritual of welcome and inclusion, the Pōwhiri. Cook also observed the transit of Mercury and accurately established the longitude of Te Whanganui a Hei on the globe"--homepage.

Summary  Oliver Hart is used to getting what he wants. Single, thirty-five and a committed bachelor, he plays by his own rules. On a personal quest to catch a rare, elusive and very valuable butterfly, he's unwittingly distracted by a former flame, Ruby Diaz, a woman who callously abandoned him eight years earlier. Deciding he wants to reclaim the beauty as his own, in his mind, it's as good as done. But Ruby is not his for the taking. Promised to the son of a wealthy landowner, she refuses to succumb to his charms. On a quest to save her family's land, Ruby knows she must put duty first, and silence the passionate stirrings of her heart. But Oliver's not taking no for an answer. Risking everything to help the woman he loves to gain her freedom, Oliver entangles himself in an emotional net that alters his life forever. Sacrificing his own selfish pursuit to help Ruby, he realizes that you may be able to own something, but you can never own someone, especially the women you love.

<td>What if the person who is so, so, so wrong for you is really so, so, so right, but you’re too afraid to give love a chance? Last Christmas, art therapist Issy Riley was jilted by her fiancé. This Christmas she’s running away. A week with a client on his private Fijian island promises to save her from cheating men and the London festive season. But when the client turns out to be a gorgeous and magnetic Italian billionaire, he threatens her resolve to never again trust her heart to the wrong man. Milan fashion house leader and avowed bachelor Massimiliano Balforni has no intention of taking a vacation, despite his sister’s insistence that he subject himself to an art therapy retreat following a minor heart attack. With an important collection due, he intends to fire his therapist and work, instead. But the determined and striking Issy gives his heart palpitations of a far more dangerous kind. The one thing Max and Issy agree on: they are as wrong for each other as wrong gets. He’s a workaholic playboy who believes emotion is a weakness. She’s a romantic who yearns for a happily ever after. As the tropical heat soars, they discover that in this battle between work and play, resistance only fuels attraction - and sometimes two wrongs make a very passionate right.</td>

Summary  "Kiri Love had no need for friendships. She had no time for distraction. She was in her final year of medical studies by the grace of God to do a job, and she was determined to do a darned good one. There was no way she could fail. Her mom had scrimped and saved every last dollar she earned and worked three jobs to pay for Kiri's education and Kiri was determined to make her proud. She would be the first person in her family to receive a degree and achieve her ambition of being a heart surgeon. But when her mother is murdered, she sacrifices her ambitions and travels back to the tiny Far North town which had created so much pain. With three sisters under nine to feed, she'll do whatever it takes to provide them with the security they need—even if it means groveling to Benotti Zegna, reclusive billionaire jeweler-to-the-stars. Benotti Zegna has a heart of gold but a failed marriage has left him cold. His hands are full running his global empire, plus being top-dad to his young and motherless daughter. He can spot a diamond in the rough and while alarm-bells warn him to watch his heart, intuition tells him that Kiri Love will make the perfect nanny"—About sound file.

Summary "Viticulturist Joey Harper's organic vineyard is under siege from neighboring landowners with chemical sprays, wanting to turn a fast profit, and someone purchasing large tracts of land under incredible secrecy. But Joey's not someone who dwells on her own troubles. She has only one wish-following the still-birth of her sister's first child, she prays her much loved younger sister may conceive again. Using her inherited gift for magic, she enlists the aid of the ancient walnut tree which towers majestically over her organic vineyard. What she doesn't realize is that her one wish, begets another, and her unselfish desire for her sister's happiness send's love to her-in the form of a most unsuitable and irresistible admirer"--About this book file.

Creator Worrall, Tim (Film maker).

Publishing Details [Auckland] : [Loading Docs], [2014]

Format 1 online resource (1 streaming video file, approximately 3 min., 30 sec.)

Summary "The Road to Whakarae is part of the new Loading Docs initiative established by the New Zealand Film Commission and NZ On Air. Filmmakers Tim Worrall and Aaron Smart saw it as a perfect opportunity to create a small project that celebrated the lighthearted and joyful aspects of being Ngai Tūhoe. It was also an opportunity to bring together and train a film crew from Te Waimana in preparation for future projects. The lyrics of the song 'Te Rori ki Whakarae, e' tell of how the winding, dusty road is a special part of the mana of the Waimana Valley. The same could be said of the various whānau and hapū in the valley who have retained much of what it is to live in a uniquely Tūhoe way. This is the spirit the filmmakers hope to share in the film"--Provided by publisher.

Title Wilbur Force : down, not out / directed and edited by J. Ollie Lucks ; produced by Veronica Stevenson with William McDougall.
Creator Lucks, J. Ollie.
Publishing Details [Auckland] : [Loading Docs], [2015]
Format 1 online resource (1 streaming video file, approximately 3 min., 30 sec.)
Summary Wilbur Force (William McDougall) was a crowd-pleasing pro-wrestler in New Zealand. A big one. When work dried up, he returned to his native city of Dunedin to be nearer friends and family. However, with a lack of routine and a growing laziness, he became an overly sedentary and extremely large 197kg man, all but bed-ridden and depressed. Until a former university friend decided to help out.
